

CACHETS PRINTED ON CANADIAN POSTAL STATIONERY BY THE CONESTOGA PRESS

---

The Conestoga Press, located in Thornbury, Ontario and owned by Justus (Gus) Knierim was approached by the post office about designing and producing a cachet to honour the centennial of the Thornbury post office. In the succeeding 20 years, this project bloomed, producing over 300 different collectible cachets on envelopes and post cards. This is the first attempt to catalogue these modern gems and undoubtedly more items, including errors, are likely to be found.

You will notice that a couple of images are missing from volume 2. If you have any of these items in your collection, please send me a scan at 300 dpi.

Because of its length, this reference is split in two:

Volume 1 \(hi res\) - Cacheted items sold in post offices - Volume 1 \(low res\)

Volume 2 \(hi res\) - Private cachets for individuals, clubs and businesses - Volume 2 \(low res\)

A checklist to help you keep track of your collection

This resource is only available on-line. Due to the file size, it may take some time to load.

Contact: Michael Sagar 3920 Royalmore Avenue Richmond, BC V7C 1P6 Canada
gailandmike@shaw.ca

Site updated July 21, 2017